

SentryNet Cruise News

Cabin Assignments have begun...

Buy-in before the good ones are gone!

Charlotte Murrell
Human Resources
cmurrell@sentrynet.com
888-635-9754

Peggy Rossmoine
Coordinator
prossmoine@sentrynet.com
800-932-3304

What should I pack??

Charlotte Said:

Happy New Year everyone, we made it through 2010 and cruise time will be here soon!! I am so excited!!! Now for the hardest decision and time consuming preparation for the cruise: WHAT TO PACK?!?!?!?

I start thinking about what do I really NEED and end up taking enough for 2 weeks, or so it seems.

I ask myself.. What will I be doing: Working out (work out clothes, and don't forget tennis shoes), daily activities (leisure clothes - such as shorts, stylish warm up suit, cute tops, skirts, jeans etc., and cute comfy shoes), by the pool or hot tub (swimming suits, cover up, beach bag, beach hat, sunglasses, flip flops, sunscreen, chap stick, a good book, or preferably..... a handsome man lying beside me (OOPS scratch the last item, my fingers typed my thoughts!).

The cruise will also include evening activities such as dinner, maybe dancing, late night comedy, a play or just socializing with friends, that I will want to "Dress Up" for...by that I mean everything from black slacks, black dress, sun dress, cute skirts, cute sparkly rhinestone tops, and my stiletto heels, of course!!! (still looking for that handsome guy)!! I'm sure I'll pack a cute light weight jacket for late night by the pool enjoying a Margarita, Pina Colada, or a cold beer with our friends!!

Oh, and don't forget your comfy walking shoes for the day in Cozumel, or dress accordingly for the excursion that you might have chosen.

Now that I have talked about what us girls should pack...this is for you GUYS...swim suit, work out (gym clothes - if you so desire), shorts, jeans, slacks, casual shirts, dress shirts, coat & tie, tennis shoes, flip flops and dress shoes!! Wow, so easy, and you always look so good?!

Of course, don't forget all your toiletries, medications, essentials, and money/credit cards for SHOPPING! And last but not least....YOUR PASSPORT!!! Happy packing, I'm starting now so that I won't forget a thing.....I'm so excited, we're going to have so much fun!!!!

Peggy Said:

WOW!! Okay she did leave me a little room but what did we expect from a woman who brings a steamer trunk to NY for a two day visit.

Me, I will probably pack the morning of the cruise and my list is simple. Passport and monies; swim suit, sun screen, and a good book; sun dress and sandals for Cozumel; a dress and heels for dinner; shorts, flip flops and SentryNet shirts for the classes; and my toiletry bag. That should all fit in my duffle bag with a bottle of wine and a 12 pack of cokes. See you onboard!!!

Next Month
Charlotte and Peggy will tell you about the cabins and other ship amenities.

