

SentryNet Cruise News

The journey begins today. We are just 9 months away from one of the most exciting Dealer Conferences SentryNet has yet to host. The first step for you is to go on-line and complete the Early Buy-in to secure your place onboard. Each month not only will you get an update as to your points to review but we will be here to help you plan for the cruise ahead. There are so many questions to be answered and we have our cruisers on staff to give you their very unique points of view.

What was your first response when you heard you were going on a cruise?

Peggy Says:

It was in a staff meeting and it was simply said that we would be going on a "fact finding" cruise for the 2011 Dealer Conference. I think had I been alone I would have broken out into the traditional happy dance as I have always wanted to go on a cruise. But, in the setting all I could say was OK, I think that's doable!

As the shock sunk in my next thoughts of course went to where and when and what. Where were we going, how long would we be gone and what was I going to get to see and do.

I remember going home that night and looking at the cruise lines and becoming overwhelmed at the choices and FAQ's and feeling like I had no idea where to begin. I look forward to taking all that information and simplifying it for you based on my experience and hopefully keep you from making some of my mistakes..

OH MY GOD! I'm getting to go on a cruise. How awesome and exciting. I have heard so many cool stories about cruises: fun/sun with non stop activities. WOW!

Hope the weather is good and what do I need to bring. I can't wait to go....I'm going to start packing now and then I can start eliminating as it gets closer. I guess I need casual and elegant, I'll just take everything!! I wonder if it's as elegant as the advertisements on TV. I am so excited, have I already said that?!?!?!?

I want to do everything. Hope I don't get sea sick, I'll get the patch, that should do it. WOW! Cozumel....never been there, can't wait to experience the island. But then again, I've never been on a cruise so it's all going to be so much fun! AWESOME!!

And Now, I get to tell you all the tricks I learned!!

Next Month
